

Let's Play KARUTA!

Ogura Hyakunin-Isshu

1st U.S. Karuta Competition

(Beginners' Genpei-sen division)

December 21, 2014 (Sunday)

Time: 13:00~15:30
Venue: Tysons-Pimmit Regional Library, Meeting Room
 7584 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22043
Participation fee FREE
Eligibility Anybody who can read Hiragana

The second half of the poem is written in Hiragana on the cards for players. The reciter will read the whole poem (first half and second half). You can attend even if you don't know any of the Ogura Hyakunin-Isshu poems.

Games

2 people on a team will play in Genpei-sen style at a table. Teams will be divided to several divisions depending on player level, age, etc. *Please make a 2-3 person team with friends, siblings, parents and children. If you cannot find a partner, please apply by yourself. We will find a partner for you.

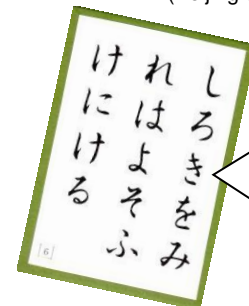

Genpei sen at a table
(Beijing competition)

Pre-registration required

Please send the following information by email to: karutastone@gmail.com

- 1) Name of team
- 2) Full name and grade (if students) of all players.
- 3) Contact mobile number
- 4) How many Kimari-ji each player know. (If you don't understand the word "Kimari-ji", please write "zero Kimari-ji".)
(What is Kiamri-ji?)

* Please register early to save a space.

この
ひらがなが
よめれば
さんか
できます。

*No Japanese Knowledge necessary.
Pick-up Priest!*

Japanese snacks and Chihayafuru good for Participation prize and

Inquiry

DC Inishie Karuta Club : karutastone@gmail.com (Ms. Mutsumi Stone)
Karuta information "World of Kyogi Karuta" <http://karuta.game.coccan.jp/>
Club Practice schedule : <http://dcinshiekarutakai.wordpress.com/>

Please contact if you want to attend practice sessions on December 14 in Falls Church.